Mail-a-Book subscribers have been wishing for audio-books for years. Now you can have access to audio-books from your home computer. The State Library's new Kansas Virtual Library online audio-book service is giving Kansas residents access to popular audio-books from any Internet-connected PC computer. OverDrive, Inc., a leading vendor of audio book solutions for libraries, supplied the technology for the new service.

The Kansas Virtual Library online audio-books are available to anyone with a Kansas Library Card. The Kansas Virtual Library's audio-books can be read on many MP3 players, iPods, PDAs, Pocket PCs, and Smartphones, in addition to PCs or laptop PCs. (But not on Macs.)

The Library's audio-book collection includes NY Times Bestsellers Most Circulated Audio, Children/Juvenile Fiction, Foreign Language Study, Fiction, Business, and Self-Help titles. Music titles are also in the collection, such as Naxos Classical Music "Must-Have" titles, and the 50 Best Selling Albums from Magnatune, including Rock, Jazz/Blues, New-Age, and Classical.

To browse audio-books and music, go to <http://kansas.lib.overdrive.com/>.

A Kansas Library Card (www.kslc.org) is required to check out and download titles from the website. You can get your Kansas Library Card online.

There are detailed instructions on check out and downloading on the site. If you need further assistance please contact the system office.

Talking Books

Reading is an essential part of life, but some people are unable to read standard print or hold a book because of a disability.

Talking Books Services offers books and magazines in Braille or on recorded cassettes right to your door. This service is provided by the Library of Congress and offers a wide variety of genres and titles.
