

Everyday ethics for librarians

This initiative satisfies core skill I-A-4 “A public library director is able to articulate the values and ethics of public librarianship.”

For more information and registration go to Webjunction Kansas at <http://ks.webjunction.org/742>

| | |
|--|---|
| KLA Conference | April 8, 2010, KLA Conference session at 4:30 pm Ethics of Facebook - NEKLS Continuing Education Consultant Brenda Hough explores issues of privacy and more when using Facebook to promote libraries. – Provided by NEKLS |
| MPL Groesbeck Room | April 27, 2010 from 10 am to 12 noon Everyday Ethics is about making better decisions and actions in your library. Topics include the history of ethics and four principles of library ethics, preventing typical mistakes, earning trust, researching the whole picture, and treating difficult people fairly. Consultant Pat Wagner presents frequently at state and national library conferences and has been visiting Kansas libraries since 1994. Pat's interest in ethics and libraries began when researching local government for library trustee workshops and government officials. She considers ethics a lifelong study no one masters. – Sponsored by the State Library of Kansas and Regional Library Systems |
| Wimba at your computer desktop Sessions will be archived on Webjunction Kansas. | May 6, 2010 from 2 to 3:30 pm Serial Killer Visits the Library: Confidentiality and coping with law enforcement inquiries - SCKLS Director Paul Hawkins describe the response to law enforcement inquiries for information about the BTK killer’s use of the library. – Provided by SCKLS May 13, 2:00-3:30 pm Ethics of Collection Development - Assistant Director of the ALA Office for Intellectual Freedom Angela Maycock will shed light on the competing interests of intellectual freedom, diversity, and responsiveness to community interests, while addressing the presence and place of potentially controversial materials in library collections. – Sponsored by SWKLS May 19, 2010, 2:00-3:30 pm Using Library Ethics, Values and Roles to Overcome Public and Trustee Resistance to Weeding - CKLS Director Harry Willems and Consultant Chris Rippel discuss how to present to the public and the board the balance of competing values affecting resistance and acceptance of weeding. – Provided by CKLS |

You're getting better, but you are still not good enough.

More sessions are on the other side.

Wimba
at your computer desktop

Sessions will be archived on Webjunction
Kansas.

May 25, 2010, 7:00-8:00 pm

Ethics for Trustees - Topeka Shawnee County Library Director Gina Millsap discusses ethical issues for trustees. – Sponsored by State Library of Kansas

May 27, 2010, 2:00-3:30 pm

Ethics of Reference - NWKLS Director Leslie Bell and Assistant Director George Seamon discuss ethical issues of reference. – Provided by NWKLS

June 2, 2010, 2:00-3:30 pm

Ethics of Access to Services - SEKLS Library Consultant Kim Rutter will use case studies to spark discussion of real-life library problems in collection organization, circulation policies, and service requests. – Provided by SEKLS

June 3, 2010, 2:00-3:30 pm

Can Mary Kay and VITA Book the Meeting Room?: Setting fair and balanced policies for library facilities usage - NCKLS Assistant Director Carol Barta and others. Libraries are prime real estate. We have meeting rooms, bulletin boards and display cases that offer access to wide segments of our communities. How do we develop policies and procedures that balance potentially conflicting purposes, not to mention viewpoints? – Provided by NCKLS

June 16, 2010, 2:00-3:30 pm

Pat Wagner's Wrap Up Session – Sponsored by the State Library of Kansas and the Regional Library Systems

Register at know.nckl.info