

EQUIPMENT STANDARDS CHECKLIST

Gateway (0-500)

1. The library provides broadband Internet access with at least 1 staff computer and 2 public access computers.

Completed  In progress  Not planned

Linking (500-1000)

1. The library provides broadband Internet access with at least 1 staff computer and 4 public access computers.

Completed  In progress  Not planned

2. The library has an integrated library automation system.

Completed  In progress  Not planned

Service Center (1000-2500)

1. The library provides broadband Internet access with at least 4 staff computers and 6 public access computers.

Completed  In progress  Not planned

2. The library has an integrated library automation system, with a web-accessible catalog.

Completed  In progress  Not planned

Level I Major Service Center (2500-10,000)

1. The library provides broadband Internet access with at least 5 staff computers and 10 public access computers.

Completed  In progress  Not planned

2. The library has an integrated library automation system, with a web-accessible catalog.

Completed  In progress  Not planned

Level II Major Service Center (10,000-25,000)

1. The library provides broadband Internet access with at least 5 staff computers and 15 public access computers. Each library location offers fax service.

Completed  In progress  Not planned

2. The library has an integrated library automation system, with a web-accessible catalog.

Completed  In progress  Not planned

Level I Major Resource Center (25,000-100,000)

1. The library provides broadband Internet access with as many computer workstations as needed for the efficient delivery of services, but no fewer than 40 with at least 30 for public access. Each library location offers fax service.

Completed  In progress  Not planned

2. The library has an integrated library automation system, with a web-accessible catalog.

Completed  In progress  Not planned

Level II Major Resource Center (100,000+ pop)

1. The library provides broadband Internet access with as many computer workstations as needed for the efficient delivery of services, but no fewer than 250 with at least 170 for public access. Each library location offers fax service.

Completed  In progress  Not planned

2. The library has an integrated library automation system, with a web-accessible catalog.

Completed  In progress  Not planned